Sub: Announcement u/r 30 - Expansion of Business on OTT Platform (Updates)

Respected Sir or Madam,

This is in continuation to our announcement dated October 27, 2023 and October 30, 2023 in the captioned subject matter.

In our previous announcements, members have been informed about the expansion of its' business on OTT universe, we would like to further update to members as under -

The production of OTT contents including short film production, are in progress and likely to be ready/out in the market for release. However, instead of releasing OTT contents on its' own platform, the Company has decided to sell releasing rights to various other players who are in the market, in order to save hurdles as looking to cost involved in clearing these OTT contents.

These OTT contents will also be available on its' own U-TUBE Channel "JMD"

The future strategy to release OTT contents on its' own platform will be decided in due course, upon the response from viewers as well as success in this new arena.

This is for the information of Members.

Thanking You,

Yours Faithfully,
For JMD VENTURES LIMITED
